Conditions Governing the Acceptance of Items for Authentication

General

I ("Applicant") agree to pay such fees as prescribed by the Confederate Stamp Alliance Authentication Service ("Service"). As used in this Application, the term "Service" means the Service, the Confederate Stamp Alliance, Inc., their officers, trustees, employees, members, committees, and consultants. Non-members must submit fee with application (see table below).

The acceptance by Service of a fee from Applicant based on Applicant's valuation of an item ("Patient") does not constitute Service's agreement with that valuation for any other purpose including, without limitation, for the purpose of valuing the Patient after loss or damage.

The Service may decline to examine a Patient submitted by Applicant or may issue a certificate ("Certificate") stating that the Service is not able to reach an opinion ("Opinion") with respect to the Patient. In such latter event, the Certificate may state that the Service declines to render an opinion ("No Opinion") with respect to the Patient. In the event of a Certificate indicating No Opinion, Applicant agrees to pay the fee charged by the Service in connection with the processing of the Patient and the issuance of the Certificate.

I acknowledge that the Opinion or No Opinion statement of the Service reflected in the Certificate is a statement of opinion only, and is not a warranty or guaranty by the Service of any kind whatsoever of that Opinion or No Opinion. The Service will take reasonable care to protect the Patient while the Patient is in its custody and control. Submission of a Patient to the Service shall be at the Applicant's sole risk of loss or damage to the Patient except in the event of gross negligence by the Service. In the event of a claim of loss of or damage to the Patient, the Applicant agrees to fully and promptly cooperate with the Service, its insurance carrier, and the United States Postal Service or other applicable carrier in connection with such claim.

Applicant agrees that in furtherance of the educational purpose of the Service, and in furtherance of the prevention and detection of spurious Patients or other philatelic artifacts without the payment of any fee or other charge to Applicant, The Service may make such use of illustrations and/or photographs of the Patient as it deems reasonably necessary or desirable for such purposes.

I may give a tax-deductible donation of such spurious material to the Service for future reference and in so doing fees are canceled provided such donation is made within 60 days of the Certificate date without charge or other fee for such use.

I have read and understand the terms and conditions herein, including the limitations of liability with respect to the Service, and agree to be bound by them.

Valuation

Insurance coverage will be for the declared value.

Valuations may be adjusted under the following circumstances:

Declared value significantly below current Scott catalog value. Items not valued in a standard catalog of the Confederate States will be valued based on the best judgment of the Authentication Service

If the item submitted is misidentified by the submitter the declared value will be changed to reflect the value of the correctly identified item.

Items sold at auction within the last three months will be adjusted upward to include the amount of the buyer's premium
